Caterpillar Chant

A caterpillar looks so small.
It is hardly there at all.
It munches on green leafy treats,
And it gets bigger as it eats.

It eats and eats, 'til pretty soon,
It wraps up tight in a cocoon.
When it wakes up it blinks its eyes
And says, "I'm now a butterfly!"

Our craft today is your very own caterpillar!

Materials -pom poms -green leaf -two sticker google eyes

The pom poms are attached to glue dots, try to pull the glue dots off with the pom poms. Place them on the leaf side by side. Peel the backs off of the eyes and place them on the sides of the first pom pom.

Thanks for joining me today! Come back in 2 weeks for a fun new story time kit!
